In accordance with A.R.S. 25-351 and Administrative Order 97-06 that requires the Superior Court in each county to adopt and implement an education program to educate persons about the impacts that divorce, the restructuring of families and judicial involvement have on children, effective April 1, 2008,

IT IS ORDERED that parents of children that file an action for dissolution of marriage, or legal separation, or annulment, or any paternity proceeding in which a party has requested that the court determine custody or visitation, in the Superior Court of Arizona in Yuma County, shall attend the Domestic Relations

1 Education on Children's Issues, now entitled Parent Information
2 Program in Superior Court in Yuma County; and

3
4 IT IS ORDERED that parents of children that file a post-
5 decree action for modification of Parenting Time and/or Custody
6 may be ordered to attend the Parent Information Program in the 7 Superior Court in Yuma County; and

8 IT IS ORDERED that the Superior Court of Arizona in Yuma
9 County adopts and approves the Notice given to parties regarding 10 the Parent Information Program until further order of this 11 Court; and

12 IT IS ORDERED that the parent filing a dissolution of 13 marriage, or legal separation, or annulment, or paternity
14 proceeding in which a party has requested that the Court
15 determine custody or parenting time, must serve this Notice on 16 the other party and any information regarding registration for 17 the Parent Information Program, necessary to comply with this 18 order, when respondent is legally served with all other court 19 documents; and

20 IT IS ORDERED that the Clerk of the Court in Yuma County
21 shall provide the petitioner with such information as is 22 necessary to enroll in the Parent Information Program; and

23 IT IS ORDERED that each person required to attend the 24 educational program required by the court pursuant to section
25 25-352 is required to pay to the clerk of the superior court a 26 fee not to exceed forty dollars ($40) that covers the cost of 27 the program. The fee may be deferred or waived pursuant to 28 section 12-302. Notwithstanding any other law, fees paid under 29 this section shall be used exclusively for the purposes of 30 domestic relations education programs that are established 31 pursuant to section 25-351. The clerk shall transmit monthly the 32 monies the clerk collects pursuant to this subsection to the

1 county treasurer for deposit in the children's issues education
2 fund established by section 25-354; and

3 IT IS ORDERED that the fee for the Parent Information
4 Program will be included in the filing fee of the petitioner and 5 those filing a response to a petition for a dissolution of 6 marriage, legal separation, or paternity proceeding in which a 7 party has requested that the Court determine custody or 8 parenting time; and

9 IT IS ORDERED that those parties involved in a dissolution
10 of marriage, or legal separation, or annulment, or paternity
11 proceeding in which a party has requested that the Court
12 determine custody or parenting time, or those ordered by the 13 Court to attend the Parent Information Program, and are not the 14 petitioner or have not filed a response to a petition (whereby 15 the fee would be included in the filing fee), and will attend
16 the class, will pay the fee to the clerk of the superior court 17 and;

18 IT IS ORDERED that all provisions in A.R.S.25-351 through 19 25-355 be adopted and adhered regarding the Domestic Relations
20 Education on Children's Issues.

21 Dated this 3rd day of ^{March}~~February~~, 2008.
